

THE Sequatchie Valley Institute
CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO

WINE IN THE WOODS

Explore the magic and novelty of life while tasting experimental wines, meads, elixirs, and other oddities from our cellar, cave, and apothecary.

APRIL 7, 2018

TOURS 3:00PM (CST) TASTING 5:00PM

Take a guided tour on land protected by the Land Trust of TN through Permaculture landscape, hand-crafted solar structures, and Pipsisewa Arboretum Trail. Then, settle into a relaxed evening of delicious and exotic specialties, including non-alcoholic naturally-flavored carbonated drinks, house-made with fresh spring water.

Featuring music by Nexus of Musical Mysticism on WXNA and a visually stunning light display by Tree Dimensional.

Visit the Liquidambar Art Gallery
Discover pottery, paintings, glass work, and sculptures created by local artists.

FREE OVERNIGHT CAMPING

Bring a tent, flashlight, and bedding and enjoy a night under the stars.
SNACKS AND REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED
Guests are welcome but not required to bring their favorite party food.

The suggested minimum donation for Wine in the Woods is $25 per person.

Contact us!

Landline: (423) 949-4598

Cell: (770) 241-3958

Address:

1233 Cartwright Loop
Whitwell, TN 37397

 We're on Facebook!

Group/family rates available. Work trade also welcome.

Sequatchie Valley Institute

is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with a mission to enable society to learn about and experience living in harmony with nature. We facilitate land conservation and restoration through practice, research, education, and art.